

Profile Builder

Using a Segment Summary file

---

OVERVIEW

Using Profile Builder, you can import a previously created profile. This file will include columns for segment code, summarized base counts and summarized profile counts for each segment.

LOCATE PROFILE BUILDER

1. From the homepage, click on Consumer Targeting.

2. Select Profile Builder.

3. Select where your profile data will be coming from. The options are:

PROFILE DATA TYPES
PROFILE DATA TYPE	DESCRIPTION
Upload a new customer file	Upload a customer address file.
From a saved file	Select a previously uploaded customer address file.
Upload a segment summary file	Upload a previously created profile.

Home > Profile Builder > Profile Builder Type

Profile Builder enables you to create a picture of your product or service by consumer segment. With a profile, you can determine which segments are most likely to use your product or service and which segments make up the biggest part of your analysis area. This in turn allows you to determine which segments to pinpoint, which are prime for development, and which should be avoided in your marketing efforts.

You can create a custom profile using your own enhanced customer address file. This customer file will then be automatically summarized against a base geography to create a profile. Or, you can import a previously created profile. This file will include columns for segment code, summarized base counts and summarized profile counts for each segment.
